DESTINATION INFORMATION:

Vienna, Austria:

Vienna is the capital of the Republic of Austria and one of the nine states of Austria. It is the 10th-largest city by population in the European Union and it is by far the largest city in Austria with approximately 1.7 million people. Vienna is located in northeastern Austria, at the easternmost extension of the Alps in the Vienna Basin, close to the borders of the Czech Republic, Slovakia, and Hungary. Vienna is host to many major international organizations, such as the United Nations and OPEC. It is also a cultural haven, with a district full of art museums, a dance center and a children's museum and theater. Music lovers can attend Vienna State Opera concerts and view the homes of composers like Mozart and Haydn. At the Hofburg Palace - home to museums, the Austrian President's office, the Vienna Boys Choir and the Spanish Riding School - visitors can watch the famous Lipizzan stallions perform. Architectural landmarks such as the gothic St. Stephen's Cathedral shouldn't be missed. The InterContinental Vienna is in a central location opposite the city park and just a short walk away from the famous shopping streets Kaerntner Strasse and Graben and the city's best attractions including Vienna Hofburg, St. Stephan's Cathedral or the hip Museums Quarter.

Currency: EUR €

Voltage: 230V

Time Zone: CET - Central European Time (CET = GMT / UCT + 1)

Language: German is spoken in Austria, and the most commonly spoken foreign language is English.

Tiping: In Austria, many restaurants include tax and a service charge in their bills, and it is customary to round up the total when paying. Taxi drivers usually receive an extra 10 percent over the meter fare. Porters or bellhops should receive up to €1 per bag.

Weather Conditions: Average weather temperatures for Vienna in June range with highs around 25°C/77°F and lows around 18.3°C /65°F.

Dining: Vienna is well known for Wiener Schnitzel, a cutlet of veal that is pounded flat, coated in flour, egg and breadcrumbs, and fried in clarified butter. Other examples of Viennese cuisine include Tafelspitz (very lean boiled beef), which is traditionally served with Geröstete Erdäpfel (boiled potatoes mashed with a fork and subsequently fried) and horseradish sauce, Apfelkren (a mixture of horseradish, cream and apple) and Schnittlauchsauce (a chives sauce made with mayonnaise and old bread). Vienna has a long tradition of producing the finest cakes and desserts. In winter, small street stands sell traditional Maroni (hot chestnuts) and potato fritters. Sausages are popular and available from street vendors (Würstelstand) throughout the day and into the night. Kebab and pizza are, increasingly, the snack food most widely available from small stands. The Naschmarkt is a permanent market for fruit, vegetables, spices, fish, meat, etc. from around the world.

Local Attractions: Major tourist attractions include the imperial palaces of the Hofburg and Schönbrunn (also home to the world's oldest zoo, Tiergarten Schönbrunn) and the Riesenrad in the Prater. Cultural highlights include the Burgtheater, the Wiener Staatsoper, the Lipizzaner horses at the spanische Hofreitschule and the Vienna Boys' Choir, as well as excursions to Vienna's Heurigen district Döbling. There are also more than 100 art museums as well as many popular sites associated with composers who lived in Vienna. For more information, please visit the Vienna Convention Bureau <http://www.wien.info/en/sightseeing>.
