

M³AAWG 67th General Meeting
Montréal, Canada
June 8-11, 2026

GENERAL HOTEL INFORMATION

Sheraton Le Centre Montréal Hotel
1201 Boulevard Rene-Levesque West,
Montreal, Quebec, Canada, H3B 2L7

Phone: +1 514-878-2000

Room Rates

Guest Rooms $359 CAD single/double

Double Room

Queen Room

Above rates do not include taxes (currently 3.5% Housing Tax, 5% GST and 9.975% PST)

Reservations

The M³AAWG negotiated room rate is guaranteed until May 15th or until the group block has been fulfilled. After May 15, 2025, or once the group block has been fulfilled, please contact the hotel directly to determine availability.

A deposit of one night or guaranteed with a major credit card may be required at time of reservation.

The individuals can make reservations directly to the Hotel by:

- Phone: Sheraton reservations at 1-800-325-3535 & Reference M³AAWG
- Online: <https://book.passkey.com/event/51127936/owner/17639/home>

Check In Time: 15:00

Check Out Time: 12:00

Cancellation Policy

Individual reservations may be cancelled up until 72 hours local time prior to arrival with no penalty. Cancellation received after this time will be subject to one night's room & tax, applied to the credit card used to guarantee the reservation.

Hotel Dining

- Stanley
 - Everyday: 6:30 AM-10:30 PM
- In-Room Dining
 - Available Daily

Fitness Center

Indoor Heated Pool - Everyday at 6:30 AM-10:00 PM

Whirlpool - 6th floor

Fitness Center available 24hrs and complimentary to hotel guests.

High Speed Internet Access in Sleeping Rooms

Complimentary for all rooms booked within the M³AAWG block.

TRAVEL INFORMATION

Montreal-Pierre-Elliott-Trudeau International Airport (YUL)

Distance from hotel: 16.7 km | 10.4 miles

Drive time: Approximately 21 minutes

Driving Directions to Hotel from Airport

747 Express Bus

Featuring nine stops in each direction, the 747 service operated by the city of Montréal is provided 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, and offers transportation between downtown Montréal and Montréal-Pierre-Elliott-Trudeau International Airport.

The fare is $11.25 per person and gives you a 24-hour pass for the bus, métro, exo train and REM in Zone A (agglomeration of Montréal). See the "Where to purchase your fare?" section for details. (coins only, bills are not accepted). Tickets provide travellers with a transit pass valid on the STM bus and metro network for 24 hours. For more information, visit the STM website.

Bus stop René-Lévesque / Drummond (52437) : This stop is cancelled due to roadworks, from February 7 2026 at 09h05 until the end of the roadworks.

Temporary terminus located at René-Lévesque / Berri stop (52905). For upcoming departures, please temporarily consult the Saint-Hubert / De la Gauchetière stop (62766).

Please visit <https://www.stm.info/en> for more information.

Taxi to Downtown

Fares are fixed and depend on the time of day you are travelling:

- Between 5 a.m. and 11 p.m.: $49.45
- Between 11 p.m. and 5 a.m.: $56.70

Note that a fee of $1.05 is included in the fare for trips to downtown and for the minimum fare.

Limousine

Sedan: starting at $85

SUV: starting at $104

Hotel Parking

On-Site Parking: Daily: $35.00 CAD per day

Visas

Countries Exempt from Visas (eTA Required for Air Travel)

- Europe: Andorra, Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Croatia, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Latvia, Liechtenstein, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Monaco, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Romania, San Marino, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, United Kingdom.
- Asia-Pacific: Australia, Brunei, Japan, New Zealand, Singapore, South Korea, Taiwan (requires personal ID number).
- Americas: Bahamas, Barbados, Chile, Mexico.
- Middle East: Qatar (as of Nov 25, 2025).

Important Notes

- U.S. Citizens: Do not need an eTA or visa; only valid proof of citizenship.
- U.S. Lawful Permanent Residents: Need an eTA, a valid passport, and a Green Card.

For more information, please visit:

<https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/international-travel/International-Travel-Country-Information-Pages/Canada.html>

DESTINATION INFORMATION

Montreal, Canada:

Montreal is a city in the Canadian province of Quebec. It is the largest city in the province, the second largest in the country (after Toronto) and the fifteenth largest in North America. Originally called Ville-Marie, or "City of Mary" it is named after Mount Royal, the triple-peaked hill located in the heart of the city. The city is located on the Island of Montreal, which took its name from the same source as the city, and a few much smaller peripheral islands, the largest of which is Île Bizard.

Currency: $ CAD

Voltage: 110-120 V

Language: French

Tipping:

- Restaurants & Bars: 15% is standard. For bar service, $1-$2 per drink is common.
- Taxis: 10-15% of the fare.
- Hotels: $2-$5 per day for housekeeping; $1-$2 per bag for porters.

Weather Conditions: Average weather temperatures for Montreal in June range with daily highs rising from 71°F (22°C) to 78°F (26°C)

Dining:

Montreal is a food lover's paradise, where old-world French influence meets bold, modern creativity. Stroll through charming cobblestone streets in Old Montreal for cozy bistros and candlelit dining, explore the Plateau for trendy cafés and globally inspired fare, or discover bustling food markets and neighborhood gems loved by locals. From buttery croissants and wood-fired bagels to elevated tasting menus and late-night poutine, Montreal's culinary scene is as diverse as it is delicious. No matter your taste or budget, dining in Montreal is an experience not to be missed.

You can usually order à la carte, but look for the table d'hôte (prix fixe) menu — a multi-course option that often offers strong value and seasonal specialties. For a special occasion, consider a menu dégustation, a chef-curated tasting experience featuring several creative courses. At Montreal's top restaurants, a tasting menu with wine can exceed $400 CAD for two and may last several hours.

Menus are often bilingual, though some are only in French. Don't hesitate to ask your server for clarification — they are typically happy to help. Keep in mind that in French, an entrée is an appetizer, while the main course is called a plat principal.

Dinner reservations are highly recommended for weekend dining.

Local Attractions:

- Basilique Notre-Dame-de-Montréal (Our Lady of Montréal Basilica)
- Jardin Botanique (Montreal Botanical Garden)
- Musée d'Archeologie et d'Histoire Pointe-a-Calliere (Pointe-a-Calliere Archaeology and History Museum)
- Musée des Beaux-Arts de Montreal (Montreal Museum of Fine Arts)
- Oratoire St-Joseph (St. Joseph's Oratory)
- Parc Jean-Drapeau

Old Montreal (Vieux-Montréal)

Set along the St. Lawrence River, Old Montreal is the city's historic heart and one of its most picturesque districts. Cobblestone streets, centuries-old architecture, and the lively Old Port create a distinctly European atmosphere just steps from downtown.

Founded in 1642, the area marks the birthplace of Montréal. Visitors can explore archaeological remains at Pointe-à-Callière, Montréal Archaeology and History Complex, and see landmarks such as the 17th-century Saint-Sulpice Seminary. Today, Old Montreal blends history with vibrant dining, galleries, boutiques, and waterfront activities—making it an essential stop for first-time visitors.

Montreal Islands

Located in the St. Lawrence River, Île Sainte-Hélène and Île Notre-Dame were expanded for Expo 67 and are now part of Parc Jean-Drapeau, one of Montreal's largest recreational spaces.

Today, the islands are home to La Ronde amusement park, Circuit Gilles Villeneuve—host of the annual Formula 1 Canadian Grand Prix—and the Casino de Montréal. In addition to these attractions, visitors can enjoy walking and cycling paths, beaches, festivals, and sweeping skyline views of the city.

Plateau Mont-Royal

Stretching north from downtown, the Plateau-Mont-Royal is one of Montreal's most vibrant and walkable neighborhoods. Along Boulevard Saint-Laurent ("The Main") and Avenue du Parc, you'll find diverse eateries and specialty shops reflecting the city's multicultural roots. On Rue Saint-Denis and the surrounding streets, cafés, boutiques, and lively terraces create a distinctly Francophone, artistic atmosphere.

Known for its colorful row houses and iconic exterior spiral staircases, the Plateau offers a glimpse of everyday Montreal life. The neighborhood is also famous for its BYOW (bring your own wine) restaurants and relaxed, local vibe.

Little Italy (Petite Italie)

Just north of the Plateau, Little Italy celebrates the heritage of Montreal's Italian community. Centered around Boulevard Saint-Laurent and Jean-Talon Market, the area is known for its espresso bars, bakeries, specialty food shops, and authentic Italian restaurants. Especially lively in the summer, it remains one of the city's most flavorful and welcoming districts.

Underground City (RÉSO)

Montreal's Underground City—officially known as RÉSO—is an extensive network of interconnected indoor walkways linking office towers, shopping centers, hotels, metro stations, and cultural venues throughout downtown. Particularly useful during the winter months, this pedestrian system allows visitors to navigate large parts of the city comfortably while staying sheltered from the cold.